

Mr. Witman Hung invited as the Award presentator at e-brand Awards 2010 Presentation Ceremony

Mr. Witman Hung, Vice President of Internet Professional Association (iProA), was invited as the Award presentator at the e-brand Awards 2010 Presentation Ceremony on August 5, 2010, organized by e-zone, with iProA as the supporting organization of the competition.

e-zone, the market-leading IT magazine in Hong Kong, aimed to recognize the effort of outstanding computer and digital product (or service) providers through the awards. The awards were bestowed by combing votes from the public through e-brandawards.hk and markets from a distinguished panel of judges, comprising industry leaders, experts from professional associations and academics, and editors of respected media. iProA, a specialist in IT industry, was invited as the professional judge panel in the competition.

Mr. Witman Hung believes that the competition was a very meaningful one as it helps promote IT among Hong Kong public.
