

Dr. Winnie Tang Invited as Panel Judge at the Hi-Tech The Best of The Best Awards

Dr. Winnie Tang, JP, in her capacity of President of Internet Professional Association (iProA), was invited as one of the Panel Judges for the Hi-Tech The Best of The Best Awards, organised by Hi-Tech of Ming Pao Magazine Ltd. The aims of the Awards were to evaluate digital products and digital communication service providers, based on their product creativity, market competitiveness, functionality and service quality.

The Panel Judges comprised of industry practitioners from the various media, professional associations and academics and they were tasked to provide their professional judgment and evaluation on various consumer digital products we use everyday, therefore their comments had provided consumers with useful information from professional and technical perspectives.

"I am certainly delighted to provide our comments on the various digital products made available to us today where many of them have brought about added convenience for enhanced life style to you and me in this digital era," remarked Dr. Tang at The Best of The Best Presentation Luncheon held on March 29, 2010.
