

Learning and Technology World Forum 2010 (LATWF)

e-Education Alliance and Internet Professional Association joined a Study Tour on e-Learning in London from 11 Jan to 15 Jan. The delegation was organised by the Education Bureau of HKSAR Government and led by Mr. Kenneth Chen, Under Secretary for Education. iProA's Deputy Hon. Secretary, Mr. Gary Yeung and Executive Committee Members Mr. Kenny Chien had joined the delegation, with other 40 delegates from the ICT Industry, Education and Publication Sector.

The delegation attended the Learning and Technology World Forum 2010 (LATWF) cum British Educational Technology Trade Show (BETTS) 2010, which was one of the largest educational technology events in the world. With the opening ceremony graced by the Prime Minister of UK, Mr. Gordon Brown, the LATWF had drawn the global industry and government stakeholders, seeking to develop the use of technologies in Education and share their experiences. The delegation learnt ideas and experiences from international leaders on strategy and policy on the e-Education development, and the overseas best practices in other cities in this Study Tour.
